Community Art Exhibit: Nancy Cornforth

Owen Sound, Ontario – February 23, 2026 – Visit the library during March to view the Community Art Exhibit

The library is pleased to welcome local artist Nancy Cornforth to the Community Art Exhibit.

Located in Owen Sound, Nancy Cornforth is a passionate artist dedicated to sharing the joy of creativity while pushing her own artistic boundaries. Through her work, classes, and community engagement, she not only brings beauty to the world, but also inspires others to embrace their own creative potential.

Primarily self-taught, Nancy has cultivated her unique style through passion, perseverance, and a deep-seated love of the arts. Her artistic journey began in her childhood where she often found solace in creating. Despite a lack of formal training, Nancy's commitment to her craft drove her to knowledge and skilled enhancement through various workshops and classes where she honed her techniques and explored various art forms. Nancy believes that art should be inclusive and that everyone should have the opportunity to explore their creativity.

Her mediums include: watercolour, acrylic and mixed media

The Community Art Exhibit offers an opportunity for local visual artists to display their work. Artists or groups interested in displaying their work must complete an application form and agree to the Library policy. Information about the program can be found at <https://www.osngupl.ca/community-art-exhibits/> or email info@library.osngupl.ca.
