On Wednesday, April 22, at 1:00 pm, in this free, two-hour presentation, Angela Yenssen, lawyer at Owen Sound Community Legal Clinic and COAGB member, discusses your options to help you plan for your best outcome.

Will you stay in place, move to a senior residence, or choose a long-term care centre? What are your rights? What are your costs? How do you advocate for yourself? Learn how to plan ahead.

The Council of Aging Grey Bruce is a non-profit organization founded in 2014. They are a forum of community leaders and older adults who promote age friendly communities, positive aging and inclusion. Their aim is to highlight the specific needs of older adults within our rural and urban communities.

The session is sponsored by Entente Education Canada, formerly Retired Teachers of Ontario, Community Grant.
